a) To transfer the funds to a new investment account we have to ask the beneficiaries to provide proof of their identity. This is to help in the fight against financial crime, terrorist financing and identity theft. Accounts opened in our branches require one form of identification to prove their name and one to prove their address. Accounts opened by post require two to prove name and two to prove address - a list of acceptable documents is available on request. If the beneficiary has a current Investment account with Tipton & Coseley Building Society please provide the account number:

b) We will require the passbook, Statutory Declaration and completion of the enclosed withdrawal form to be signed by the Executor(s). If the passbook is lost please contact us.

I/We* named overleaf declare that I am/we are* the Executor(s) named in the last will of the deceased, or the only person/people beneficially entitled to receive the monies in the above numbered account(s). I/We request Tipton & Coseley Building Society to pay the money in the above to me/us* or in accordance with my/our* instructions. I/We* confirm that I/We* do not intend to apply for a Grant of Representation and one has not been obtained. I/We* undertake to Indemnify and keep indemnified Tipton & Coseley Building Society against all demands, claims, liabilities, losses, costs and expenses whatsoever which may be incurred or sustained in any manner or way by reason of any payment or transfer made to me/us* or at my/our* request.

This indemnity shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English Law.

If the total balance is less than £5,000 complete box A below.

If the total balance is £5,000 to £10,000 complete boxes A and B below.
